

Personal Data Protection Act (PDPA)

With the Personal Data Protection Act 2010 (PDPA) coming into effect on 15 November 2013, Nova Highlands Hotel (Nova) is committed to complying with PDPA and protecting our guests' personal information.

Nova will only collect information that we believe to be relevant and required. The information will not be disclosed to any external organisation for purposes other than those needed by Nova to serve you better.

The personal information we have previously collected from you includes but is not limited to your name, address, email address, birth date, telephone number, address, identification number and/or credit card details.

The information collected may be used for various purposes including, without limitation, to communicate with you, charge your committed purchase amount, respond to your enquiries, administer your participation in our campaigns and conduct market surveys or trend analysis in accordance with the Act.

If required for any of the foregoing purposes, we may disclose your information to our authorised service providers located within or outside of Malaysia.

If you do not wish to continue receiving newsletter and promotional emails from us, you may discontinue by clicking "Unsubscribe" at the bottom of our email.

If you are below 18 years of age, please bring this notice to the attention of your parent or legal guardian.
